Cookie types

As part of our websites, we use the following types of cookies:

Necessary / Technical: These files are necessary for the website to function properly. These files are installed in particular for the purpose of remembering login sessions or filling in forms, as well as to remember whether you have been informed about the use of cookies..

Functional: They remember and adapt the platform to your choices, e.g. they allow you to automatically fill in the e-mail address from which you last logged in within the platform.

Analytics: Allows us to check your number of visits and traffic sources. With their help, we are able to determine which websites are popular and which are not. With their help, we analyze statistics and improve the performance of our websites. As part of our websites, we use, among others, solutions from Google, Mailerchimp and Hotjar.

Marketing - They allow to adjust the displayed advertising content to the user's interests, not only within our portal, but also outside it. Can be installed by advertising partners. Based on the information from these cookies and activity on other websites, a profile of the user's interests is built.

Social media cookies: These are cookies installed by our partners to match the displayed advertising content on social media. On their basis, the user's interest profile is built. As a result, the displayed content is tailored to the individual needs of the user.

Cookies retention

Session - they are stored on the device used until you leave the website, e.g. by turning off the web browser.
